

KITCHEN PORTER - JOB DESCRIPTION

Who are we looking for?

The Saxon Arms is looking for hardworking and enthusiastic Kitchen Porters to join their friendly and professional team.

The Kitchen Porter should have experience in a similar environment but this is not essential as we can provide all the necessary training. You will be assisting the restaurant and kitchen with washing of plates, cutlery, etc. and cleaning of kitchen and appliances.

All we are looking for is a willingness to learn and a strong work ethic – taking pride in a job well done. We see this position as important as the Head Chef, without a kitchen porter the kitchen would not run efficiently.

Job Type: FULL-TIME

Salary: TO BE DISCUSSED

Required education: SECONDARY EDUCATION

Required experience: 1 YEAR MINIMUM

Required licence of certification: DRIVING LICENCE

Job requirements

This role will involve:

- Hard working team player with good communication skills
- Willingness to take on new tasks
- Supporting other members of the team
- Continuously adding input and suggestions for new ideas to help improve the work area

The learning and development opportunities are endless.

The Saxon Arms

Who are we?

Owned by landlord and landlady Rod and Janette Lamont – who have over 30 years' experience in the trade – and supported by a loyal and well-trained staff team, The Saxon Arms has established itself as the hub of the local community and one of the best dining pubs in the county.

The Saxon Arms remains true to the principles of the traditional English pub with its hearty welcome, wholesome pub food, wines, spirits and real ales.

What do we offer?

Successful candidates can look forward to:

- Competitive pay
- Workplace pension
- 20% Discount card
- Opportunity to work in one of our sister pubs all based in Dorset
- 28 days holiday
- Range of training and development opportunities
- Fantastic career prospects as we aim to train our leaders of the future

Where are we?

The Saxon Arms is a beautiful thatched flint-stone pub, set in the rural pretty village of Stratton, in West Dorset and 3 miles from the town of Dorchester.

What now?

At The Saxon Arms we are a team, we share success together, help each other and respect each others position so if you like what you have read, and are ready for a new challenge, then please get in touch.
